

INTERNATIONAL MENTORS WANTED!

Curious about China but don't know where to start? Spend three months as an international mentor at a Chinese university!

Starting in early 2017, will be looking for exceptional English-speaking students to take part in a brand new fully-funded study abroad program in China.

IF YOU ARE...

At the top of your class
Friendly and outgoing
Crazy about foreign cultures

Looking for an exciting challenge and
A native speaker of English

...THEN WE WANT YOU TO APPLY!

RESPONSIBILITIES

Monday through Friday, you will lead a small group seminar, sharing your own experiences of daily life in your home country and learning about Chinese culture and lifestyles.

After class, you'll be expected to split your time between preparing for seminar and participating in extracurricular activities with local students, such as...

- Pick-up basketball games
- RPG/MOBA/LoL LAN and table game parties
- Book clubs and movie screenings
- Hikes and day trips around the university

BENEFITS

In exchange for your hard work, you will be provided with

- One roundtrip ticket to China and back
- A shared 2-person dorm room with attached bathroom for the duration of your stay
- A monthly stipend of 5000 RMB to cover living expenses
- Medical insurance
- Chinese language and culture classes
- Three all-expenses paid field trips: two day trips to a major city center or cultural hot spot, and one overnight trip further afield

HOW TO APPLY

Send us a one-page personal statement, along with your CV, and scanned university transcript including your most recent term. Reference letters are optional, but highly recommended!

Preference will be given to second-year and above university students

- Who can demonstrate exceptional academic performance
- Who are interested in exploring out-of-the-way corners of the Middle Kingdom
- Who are non-traditional, first generation college students from diverse backgrounds

In your personal statement, please specify which academic term you will be applying for:

Fall Term - September, October, November
Deadline: July 15, 2017

Spring Term - March, April, May
Deadline: January 15, 2018

Please send your completed application materials to sunshine@beifangedu.net

Applicants will be contacted for a follow-up interview within two weeks of receiving your completed application. If we think you're the right fit for one of our schools, we'll let you know!
